In Between The Lions

I want to live in between the lions,
Just like Egyptian and the ancient Mayans.
Beneath the sun sits serious prowlers,
Beneath the moon hear the distant howlers.

Oh You better believe there's nowhere else to go.
Don't let it deceive your sun rise lit soul.
You better believe in now, now now now.

Well won't you meet me in between the lions,
A special place between the low and high ends?
"Cause in between yesterday and tomorrow,
I recognize happiness and sorrow.

Bld

Meet me on the Blvd, I'd rather see you than talk.
We can drive but it's a quarter to five and baby I'd rather walk.
Let them say what the wanna say,
We're gonna get together anyway.
So I called to tell you baby yeah.

Meet me on the Blvd, I wanna see you some more.
We can feel, we can touch but it don't add to much until we get through the door.

Let them say what they wanna say,
We're gonna get together anyway.
So I called to tell you baby yeah.

Meet me on the Blvd.

As One

Eyes can be the tether,
That connects our worlds together.
Feeling our attraction
And the chemical reaction.
It's a joy to be as one.

Scouting like a ranger,
You're no longer like a stranger.
Now and then forever,
From a spark, to flame, to ember.
It's a joy to be as one.

Eyes can be the tether,
That connects our worlds together.

Destined To Be Dead

Destined to be dead.
Now how old were you?
You're messing with my head.
It's all about you.

You keep the Reaper on the run,
Although you're having so much fun.

You're destined to be dead.
You'll follow through.
You'll see it to the end.
Well it's all about you.

When 27's come too soon,
And fame has had its toll on you.

Destined to be dead.
You were destined to be dead.

Like Hendrix, Cobain, Morrison,
You never know quite where or when.

Destined to be dead.
You were destined to be dead.

Bigger Than We Know

When everything you see results from fate,
It's coming for you fast, don't hesitate.
I might react to plainly to your eye, I can't deny.

Accepting who you are lifts off the weight,
What's held you down before, you just can't wait,
To settle in your skin, it's who you are,
At least thus far.

We're bigger than we know.
We're everything and so,
It's justified, magnified.

Truly there's a place we all can be,
Together and forever, you and me,
Where once there was a distance that seemed so far,
Yet here we are.

Body To Body

All I wanna be is body to body,
Let's take off our clothes, never mind there's a party.
I just want to be bare with you,
That's all I want to do with you.

Want to feel your skin on mine.
Don't you know you feel divine?

All I wanna be is body to body,
Let's take off our clothes and get naughty naughty.
I just want to be bare with you.
That's all I want to do with you.

All I want to be is body to body.

Sometimes Solitude

When I think about,
All you do for me,
Every day of the year,
You're everything to me,
Nothing more to be,
I keep on showing my self.

When I'm traveling,
To or where or when,
I keep on telling my self,
Sometimes solitude comes across as rude,
But I feel good when I'm there.

Well when the moonlit sky gives birth to midnight,
It all begins from here,
From the dark to light.
I once thought about how sad I'd be,
If I never heard the sound within me.

Early morning rise,
Coolness in the air,
Heading out on my way.
'Cause sometimes solitude,
Energizes me,
To be alive everyday.

Listen To Me

I don't care if you want me,
I just know what you need,
Read so clear like a mirror.

Take a good look from the outside,
Shaken off the chip from the shoulder.
I know you don't want to hear it but,

Yeah, yeah, listen to me yeah.

Can I lay it out show another side?
Say it ain't so but you really know.
Every word like a dagger.
Yeah, yeah, listen to me yeah.

Magician

I can see you walking from a mile away.
Your top hat and a cape, a dead give away.
Your levitation's become a sensation.
Taken from nothing and turned into something.
Abracadabra

Your slight of hand's no match for my head to say,
"Well I believe you know" but you really go the other way.

Your institution is based on illusion.
Taken from nothing and turned into something.
Abracadabra

It Takes Courage

Well here I am on my bed,
Sitting here thinking of you,
And it's all I ever want to do,
Hold you close, never let you go.
I feel the same way babe and you know,
That every little chance we,
Together means alot to me.
Don't you know that it takes,
Alot of courage to say I love you?
When I step out and on a limb to say I love you?

Well I was unsure if you wanted me,
To say how I really feel,
It's harder when we're far apart,
Don't you know that I want to start,
To open up 'bout the way we are,
Ever since I met you at the bar.
Don't you know what I'm going to say?
Well let me tell you tell you baby that it,
Takes alot of courage to say I love you,
When I step out and on a limb to say I love you.

Well it takes,
Alot of courage,
To say,
I love you.

Step Up To Be Tall

You got to step up to be tall,
Especially if your very very small.
You know it don't take much effort at all.
But you gotta step up to be tall.

Well I once met a man from Nepal,
Who climbed the highest mountain of them all.
I thought from way up there I could fall,
But you gotta step up to be tall.

But you gotta step up to be tall,
Even if you're not very small.
It might feel as if you're up against a wall,
But you gotta step up to be tall.

"You know that you got to,
You gotta step up now."
It's what everybody tells ya gonna pull you through to help ya.

Well when I fly back to St. Paul,
I thought of all the ways to be tall,
And if there's one thing I learned from it all,
It's that I didn't need to step up at all.
Ahhhhdadadah!
