

Original Face

Lyrics by Chris Perricelli © 2014

Flip You Over

When every little thing's been done,
You want to get out and have some fun.
It's all because you're trying so hard and,
Second guess your ability in,
Making out of the best you're in.
Flip you over, do it over.

Never again will you be lost.

It's not a box but a feeling you're in,
A subtle change in the way you're thinking.
All because you're itching to break out,
Of all the things you learned before,
You want to through them all out the door.
Flip you over, do it over.

Never again will you be lost.

Medicinal

It's not just me who's thinking,
You got a good way of working.
It all just comes through so easy.
You're helping me every day that you're here.

You are medicinal.

You have such a calm effect on,
Everyone near, no caution.
Your word's like time lapse dose of,
Cherry red hit's the symptom immediately.

You are medicinal.

You're helping me every day that you're here.
Placebo? No, no, you got to be the real deal.
I can't get enough, you know you're helping me heal.

Face

I want to see your face.
I want to see your face.
Need to see your soul before you wanted more,
In a place bigger than your head could ever think about.

Face.
You have a perfect face.
Right before my eyes here with no disguise,
Let me take you on back to know what it's all about.

Face.
Original face.
Want to see your soul before you wanted more,
In a place bigger than your head could ever think about.

Face.
I want to see your face.
Right before my eyes here with no disguise,
Let me take you on back to know what it's all about.

The Builder

You say you want to be big?
Then you want to get out, of your small town.
You say you want to be heard?
Then you want to get out every word.

Build it up from there.
It's a scaffold.

You say you want to be loud?
Then you want to get out, of your small town.
You say you want to be loved?
Then you want to get out ,by your self.

Build it up from there.
It's a scaffold.

And you remember how you got there now. Do you?

Shake

Shake!

It's all about you moving now.
It's all you want to do with your body.
Your setting's on.

It's how you want to look when you,
Put all your money into your fashion.
Your beautiful.

Show them with your smiling eyes.
Show them all the parts you like,
That make you sigh.

Shake!

It's all about you moving now.
It's all you want to do with your body.
Your setting's on.

Take all your friends to move along.
Big beat is all you care about now.
You're having fun.

Show them with your smiling eyes.
Show them all the parts you like,
That make you sigh.

Shake!

Sun

Show yourself to the sun,
Where you been for so long?
Been waiting for dawn.
Left behind all your wrongs.
You're ready to run.
Like a child you,

Come from the mountain side,
On horse with arms open wide.
Sunflowers rise behind,
A liberated state of mind.
Sun.

Show yourself to the sun,
With nothing to hide.
Your discovery's made,
From the moon when you,

Come from the mountain side,
On horse with arms open wide.
Sunflowers rise behind,
A liberated state of mind.
Sun.

When the sun is in your eyes,
There's always a shadow behind.

All I Ever Need

Baby when your all I ever really need,
Offering it all to make us be complete,
Everything it seems,
To fall in place where they need to be.

Take you as you are and show me how it is,
Cant resist at all. We settle into this.
Then everything it seems,
To fall in place where they need to be.

All I ever need is what I got.

Find Me Now

I want you. Come find me now.
Without you, I want to frown.

Sometimes I feel lonely without you.
Can't you be close to me now.

Try my best to find you.
Try my best without you.
While your gone,
I try so hard to hold you in my aching heart.

Beyond Each Other

Don't you want your body to be loved by me?
No one else can feel the heat,
Between the two of us,
It seems it's true.
Darling promise me that,

We will have a life beyond the,
Sights before our eyes.

Don't you want your body to be loved by me?
No one else can feel the heat,
Between the two of us,
It seems it's true.
Darling promise me that,

We'll go further,
Choosing neither sides of who we are.

Close Your Eyes

Be aware, we're not orphans,
From this world, we can't deny.
We've gone against all the things we've said,
From when were young, to days of now.

Close your ears. Close your eyes.
Don't speak a word or recognize.

I'll wait here. Will you find me?
Or will you turn to what you know?
When all comes down I'll still be around,
Loving you with all my heart.

Like It Was

You never thought it could be like it was.
'95, lot's of time. I'm happy for you.
Without a care in the world,
You were free. Lot's of fun,
Everyone thought you were so sweet.
Well did it come with a,

Price of guilt,
Left behind what was built.
You were somewhere out on a limb,
Sink or swim.

You never thought it could be,
Like it was when you were young.
The offers come and come.
So now you stand where you are.
You're surprised, you compromised,

To get you this far.
Was it worth it for you.
Well did it come with a,

Price of guilt,
Left behind what was built.
You were somewhere out on a limb,
Sink or swim.

We Understand

We should be a sight for you.
We should be a light for you.
A beacon for everything that's good for you.

We understand your boy.
We'll cover for you mother.
He's going to go further,
That we understand your boy.

We should hold you up to see,
We should hold you truthfully,
And give you to everything you want to be.

We understand your boy.
We'll cover for you mother.
He's going to go further,
That we understand your boy.

I Know Who You Are

Are you looking for an ending,
A song to take you away?
Waiting for more, you go on and on and on,
Pulling, pulling, pulling away.

I know who you are.
Don't have to look too far.
Stay right here with me.
Truly now you'll see.

If the seeker seeks,
The two shall never meet,
So call off your dogs,
And your destroyer fleets.
Your straps undone and boots
Stung loosely, well certainly,
What's the use.

I know who you are.
Don't have to look too far.
Stay right here with me.

Truly now you'll see.

If the seeker seeks,
The two shall never meet.
